

Register Today!!

Come to OKC/Bricktown for 6CEUs, dinner, and lots of fun!

Friday, October 7th 2011

Lighting the Pathway: Diversity and the Treatment of Eating Disorders

2011 Fall Conference & Evening Event

Oklahoma Eating Disorders Association

Recipe for Recovery: Essential Ingredients for the Effective Eating Disorders Therapist and

Six Degrees of Separation: Ways to Help Clients Reconnect to their Lives:

Beth McGilley, Ph.D., Healing Path Foundation, Wichita, is a psychologist specializing in the treatment of eating and related disorders, body image, athletes, trauma, and grief. She has practiced for nearly 30 years, writing, lecturing, supervising, and providing individual, family and group therapy. Dr. McGilley's second presentation includes a performance by Robin Macy, founding & former member of the Dixie Chicks.

Body Image through Different Cultural Perspectives :

Ovidio Bermudez, MD, Medical Director of Eating Recovery Center, Denver, has lectured internationally on eating disorders, childhood obesity, and other topics related to adolescent and young adult healthcare and is recognized for his dedication and advocacy in the field of eating disorders.

The Future of Diagnosis and Treatment of Eating Disorders: DSM VI and Beyond:

Scott Moseman, MD, Medical Director of ED Unit, Laureate Hospital, Tulsa, has been at Laureate working with eating disorder patients on an inpatient and outpatient basis since 2004. He is active in research investigating the neurobiology of eating disorders.

Where Do We Go From Here? Establishing Weight Recommendations for Clients with EDs:

Leah Graves, RD/LD, Manager of Nutrition Therapy for ED Unit, Laureate Hospital, has presented at the International Conference on Eating Disorders, Academy for Eating Disorders, and the American Dietetic Association and published multiple articles on nutrition therapy and eating disorders.

Are You Hot or Not?: (Lunch Speaker Presentation)

Monique Bruner, MPA, Political Science & Women's Studies, Rose State College, Del City, serves as the co-advisor to the RSC Black Students Association and serves on numerous academic committees. She dedicates endless amounts of time and hard work to support the community.

Register online at <http://okeatingdisorders.org> or contact info@okeatingdisorders.org

5:00-9:00 CONVERSATION OF HOPE Dinner featuring Vic Avon

An evening of stories, music, and art that inspires hope for those suffering with an eating disorder, as well as family, friends, and others who offer support to the struggle of recovering from an eating disorder. This fundraiser includes complimentary dinner, a silent auction, stories of recovery & hope, and a few surprises along the way.

Conference Site: The Sheraton in Downtown OKC offers a discounted rate of $109 per night, is within walking distance to Bricktown, a short distance to the OKC National Memorial & Museum, Bricktown, Thunder Basketball, Rocktown Climbing Gym, Oklahoma River Cruises, Remington Park Racetrack, the OKC Zoo, the Civic Center and other theaters, and more.

Come for the conference; stay for the weekend!